

Wiring a 335 is one of the harder guitars to work on as everything has to go through the "F" holes. If you are unsure at all about doing this then you should take this kit and your guitar to a tech who can do this for you.

The black circles or rectangles denote solder points and the empty rectangles where the tab is cut off.